

Mandela University

We're thrilled that you're considering applying to Nelson Mandela University. Because we know the process can feel a little overwhelming, we have simplified it into four easy steps.

DISCOVERY

See what options are available to you, make your career choice, find out what qualifications can get you there and see if you meet the requirements:

- Decide what course (qualification) you want to study
- See what is required to be able to study towards that course (admission requirements)
- Find out about accommodation and financing your studies
- Get help on making your decision via online tools, such as the prospectus and quick guides

Get started with Step 1, where you'll discover all the information and tools you need for a future at our university.

APPLICATION

Decided what you want to study? Meet the requirements? Right, now you can apply:

- Apply online for admission to study at Nelson Mandela University
- Apply for accommodation at Nelson Mandela University
- Apply for funding

Are you ready to take Step 2? This is where you need to apply and we'll guide you through the entire process.

ADMISSION

Submitted your application? Now you can:

- View your admission status
- View your residence admission status
- Change your study choice
- Change your contact details
- Confirm any admission offer you may have received so we can reserve a place for you

Let's get you admitted! In Step 3 of the process you can view your status and make any changes to your application.

REGISTRATION

If you've been admitted to study at Nelson Mandela University – congratulations!

- Pay any relevant fees that may be due
- Take part in the orientation programmes to find out how and where to do things on campus
- Find out when you can register for your course
- Go through the registration process to enrol in your chosen subjects (modules)
- Find out when lectures start

You're nearly done! After you've been admitted, you need to take Step 4, the final stage of the registration process.

APPLY now

Haven't yet applied online? You can follow this 4-step application process on our website to get started and to find out more information.

Welcome to our community! Start your journey with us today and change the world tomorrow.